File Name: HDClone Professional 3.9.4 Portable.exe..We are responding to comments and statements from customers reacting to our poor performance as a dealer over the past five years and focusing on the truth that our future success will be primarily dependent on our behavior towards our dealer customers. We will continue to be open with the facts about our performance that have improved since our last dealer agreement in 2005. We will consistently strive to be our best, but we cannot ignore or change reality in the process. We want our dealer partners to have faith in us that we will work to change, but it is their product that is the key to our future success. It is our dealers' responsibility to protect and grow their private label business. Today we confirmed what we have known since 2005 that our Private Label (PL) business has declined steadily, on average, by an average of 10% from 2005 to 2009. We expect 2011 will be a better year and plans are underway to address this troubling trend. We are determined to work with our dealer partners to help improve the situation, but we cannot ignore the fact that our private label business has been declining and that dealer price erosion will remain our most important business-of-necessity objective in 2011. To help ensure that other local competitors are not harmed in our efforts to work with our
